SEPTEMBER PROJECT HIGHLIGHT

OSWEGATCHIE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL WATERFORD, CONNECTICUT

Construction has been completed to Oswegatchie Elementary School located in Waterford, Connecticut. The owner of the project is the Town of Waterford, Connecticut. O & G Industries, Inc., located in Torrington, Connecticut, was the General Contractor and the Architect was Jacunski Humes Architects, LLC, located in Berlin, Connecticut. Two hundred forty nine EFCO Series 2900 window systems and EFCO Series 5600 Curtainwall/Entrances were installed by Lockheed Window Corp.'s certified installation crew. The window finish was Arcadia Zinc Green, appropriate to the LEED® Certified Silver Rating awarded to the project for energy savings and efficiency performance.

Oswegatchie Elementary School is a LEED® Certified Silver Rating Project:

Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design (LEED) is an internationally recognized green building certification system, providing third-party verification that a building or community was designed and built using strategies intended to improve performance in metrics such as energy savings, water efficiency, CO2 emissions reduction, improved indoor environmental quality, and stewardship of resources and sensitivity to their impacts.

LEED certified buildings are supposed to use resources more efficiently when compared to conventional buildings simply built to code. LEED certified buildings often provide healthier work and living environments, which contributes to higher productivity and improved employee health and comfort.

Lockheed Window Corp. has over thirty years of commercial market experience in institutional organizations such as schools, colleges, hospitals, private and public housing complexes, condominiums and office complexes. We provide experienced on-site engineering for all installed products. All of our commercial sales projects are insured and most are bonded. All projects are installed by our own certified installers. We do not utilize subcontractors.

"Our commitment to our customers is to provide the most competitive price for a quality project in an acceptable time frame with outstanding customer service."
